American-born Larissa Babij was at home in Kyiv when Russia launched its full-scale invasion of Ukraine on February 24, 2022. A Kind of Refugee chronicles the first year of all-out war in Ukraine through vivid dispatches that Babij sent to readers abroad in 2022. It is a personal story of coming to terms with her own inherited past as the grandchild of Ukrainian WWII refugees while responding to Russia's assault on her home and discovering the significance of taking care of your country together with your compatriots. A Kind of Refugee is both a testimony to Ukraine's indefatigable spirit and a message to Americans to take responsibility for their power to shape the war's outcome.

Presentation will be in English*
